

REVALIDATION

The post and all of the members should be proud of the AMVETS name. It was a great honor when your post received its AMVETS Charter. Each member of your post is representative of the same spirit of veteran service that began over 60 years ago, when AMVETS was Congressionally Chartered as a National Organization.

Your AMVETS Charter should be protected and requires little or no effort to do so. Listed below are the yearly revalidation requirements essential to maintain your charter in good standing.
