ABOUT THIS GUIDEBOOK

Dear AMVETS Member,

The Department of Ohio Guidebook should become part of your post records and be made available to your post officers upon request. For your convenience, the information contained within the Guidebook can also be accessed online by going to www.ohamvets.org and clicking on the icon in the "Quick Links" section or under "Resources/Guidebook" from the top menu tabs.

To make the Guidebook more functional and user-friendly, our Vice Commanders, along with the Department Headquarters staff, have worked diligently to enhance the design of the Guidebook and the forms within. You will find individual awards defined, along with the various programs in which every post in the state of Ohio is eligible to participate.

For a prosperous year, we are going to need the help of every AMVET. I know with full cooperation, the Department of Ohio will continue to be the largest Department in the nation. If at any time anyone has any questions, please contact Department Headquarters staff and they will be more than happy to assist you. Changes to the Guidebook will be sent out to Posts as necessary as well as being available on www.ohamvets.org.

Greetings my fellow AMVETS,

My name is Sara Pierce and I'm excited to serve as Commander of the AMVETS Department of Ohio for the 2021-2022 fiscal year. I look forward to working with everyone this year while continuing to maintain and improve our organization.

I am an Army Reserve Veteran and a lifetime member of Post 444 in Fairborn.

I would like to congratulate all the 2021-2022 elected officers from the Ladies Auxiliary, Sons of AMVETS, Juniors, and Riders. I intend to work with all our officers and members to make this year great and memorable.

With much input from our past as well as input from our new leaders, I know we will continue to be the biggest and best Department in the Nation. While working with our Ohio AMVETS family, we can continue to show our support for veterans, our members, and our communities.

My project for the year is AMBUCS, a 501(c)(3) organization that builds bikes and/or trikes at no costs for disabled or limited mobility veterans, civilians, and children. The tagline of National AMBUS is Inspiring Mobility & Independence. AMBUCS owns AMTRYKES who develops bikes for individuals based on their specific needs.

I am elated to continue the traditions of The AMVETS Department of Ohio while working together to strengthen and enhance our Ohio Family. We will continue to lead the way for our veterans, families, and our communities.

"Coming together is the beginning. Keeping together is progress. Working together is SUCCESS."

– Henry Ford

Respectfully,

Sara Pierce

Commander's Project

AMBUCS makes and gives away therapeutic tricycles to thousands of families each year nationwide.

The Amtryke Adaptive Tricycle Program is about inspiring new abilities. Their goal is to provide access to all the classic benefits of riding a bike: mobility, strength, exercise, coordination, interaction with family and friends, and just pure fun.

Amtryke makes foot trykes, hand trykes, and hand & foot trykes in a wide range of sizes—all at a low cost. Nearly every rider can be successful, no matter their diagnosis, through the full line of highly adjustable trykes and myriad of adaptive accessories.

AMBUCS now has more than 5,000 members in more than 150 chapters in over 30 states. Their members work on a grassroots level to fulfill their mission, Inspiring Mobility & Independence. The Amtryke Therapeutic Tricycle Program is one of the main ways this mission is accomplished. AMBUCS members fundraise for and give away about 3,500 Amtrykes each year.

Please contact them for more details at 1-800-838-1845 or at their website: <https://ambucs.org>.

BORN OF WAR

AMVETS was born of war... for the cause of peace. In December of 1944, nine veterans organizations across the nation, made aware of each other by a Collier's magazine article, met in Kansas City, Missouri to form a national organization. They adopted the name "American Veterans of World War II". A newspaperman, trying to fit the name of the veterans organization into a headline, created the abbreviation "AMVETS"; a name which was eventually officially adopted. AMVETS first national convention was held in Chicago in October of 1945.

FEDERAL CHARTER

On July 23, 1947, President Truman signed a bill, passed unanimously by the 80th Congress, to grant a federal charter to AMVETS. By request of AMVETS, the charter was amended in 1950 to open membership to veterans who served during the Korean Conflict, and was amended again in 1966 to open membership to Vietnam veterans. In May, 1984, a charter amendment was again brought before Congress requesting that eligibility be extended to include those who served after May 8, 1975. This bill was passed on May 17, 1984 and subsequently signed into Public Law 98-304 on May 31, 1984 by President Ronald Reagan.

AMVETS DEPARTMENT OF OHIO

AMVETS Department of Ohio was founded on the 14th day of June 1946 and Chartered by National Headquarters on the 10th day of September 1946, John L. Smith signed the charter for the AMVETS Department of Ohio. Carl Freudenberg proudly served the Department of Ohio as our first State Commander from 1945-1946.

PREAMBLE

We, the American Veterans who have served or are serving in the Armed Forces of the United States during and since World War II, fully realizing our responsibilities to our community, to our state, and to our nation, associate ourselves for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States, to safeguard the principles of freedom, liberty, and justice for all; to promote the cause of peace and good will among the nations; to maintain inviolate the freedom of our country; to preserve the fundamentals of democracy; to perpetuate the friendship and associations of these veterans; and to dedicate ourselves to the cause of mutual assistance, this by the Grace of God.

AMVETS Department of Ohio celebrates 75 years of service

The Ohio Department of AMVETS was founded on Flag Day (June 14) in 1946. The department's first commander was Carl G. Freudenberg of Cincinnati, who was also one of the original eight men who founded the national organization two years before.

The first post chartered in Ohio was Lima Post 1 which makes it the oldest continually operating post in Ohio. Lima was soon followed by posts in Springfield, Cincinnati and Alliance. By the end of 1947, Ohio had additional posts in Hamilton, Cuyahoga Falls, Akron (two posts), Columbus, Wapakoneta, Toledo, Dayton, Massilon, Bedford, Sandusky, London, Kenton, Findlay, Mansfield, Delphos, Newark, Elyria, Belle Center, Ravenna, Youngstown, Chillicothe and Carey. Columbus was chosen as the state headquarters at the first annual convention in June 1946. Ohio's first program was a state legislative advocacy program which in its first year saw three bills enacted in law.

The Ohio Department's Headquarters Building was dedicated close to the 75th anniversary during its 75th Annual Convention in Columbus on June 11. The building holds 75 years worth of history in its legacy and training rooms.

History books were compiled by year and features news clippings, photos, correspondence and more. A digital newspaper archive of The Ohio AMVET, Ohio's independently published newspaper from 1949 - 1985 will be available on www.ohamvets.org soon. All members are encouraged to stop by and take a tour of the building and peruse the organization's history when visiting Columbus.

Conventions have been held continuously every year since 1946 with the exception of last year (2020) when the Convention was not held due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Each Convention was held in a different Ohio city for many years and were first organized by a dedicated Convention Committee and later by a Convention Corporation.

In recent years, the Convention has been organized by Department staff, the State Commander and members of the SEC.

The event no longer travels each year, as it is now centrally located at the Crowne Plaza Hotel near the new Headquarters Building at 960 Checkrein Ave., in north Columbus.

Conventions and conferences have traditionally been events where the organization's business gets done as well as being an opportunity to socialize with your fellow veterans and their families through our subordinate organizations.

From 1948 - 1951, AMVETS Ohio was in the housing business. The Department built a whole subdivision in north Columbus for WWII veterans, dubbed AMVETS Village. The homes were known as starter homes and veterans could use their VA benefits to secure the purchase of them. The neighborhood included a large park at one end. The subdivision still exists today, has a high occupancy rate and is in good condition. The only thing left with the AMVETS name is the park (AMVET Village Park). At the time, the development was the largest veterans-sponsored home building project in the country. The project was managed by the Columbus AMVETS Homestead Association and the homes were built by Arlington Homes. There were eight house plans to choose from and the asking price was between $7900-$9950 for each home. Total cost for the project was about $5,700,000. The project occupies 202 acres on former cropland just north of Ohio Dominican University on the Northeast Side of Columbus.

Aerial view shows just one part of the nearly-completed south section of the AMVETS Housing Subdivision on Columbus' northeast edge. Notice the winding roads and varied styles of exterior design.

Here we see Thames Road, a newly paved street in the AMVETS Housing Subdivision. Big lots and generous front lawns give children lots of space in which to play. The curved streets discourage drivers from speeding through the project.

Women have been in prominent roles since the beginning of the organization. Post 12 in Toledo elected Irene V. Williams as Post Commander in 1946. Post 13 in Dayton elected Mabel Connelley as post commander in 1951. Virginia E. Chafee served as State 4th Vice Commander also in 1946, the first year of our organization. And Mary Somers was State Historian that same year. An all-women's post was organized in 1953 (see below) and Mabel Hunter served as the Department's state finance officer during that same period (1951-53). The National Sad Sacks was based in Vermilion, Ohio for awhile when it was led by Mary Montgomery in the 1970s and 1980s and Joy Murry served as the organization's first National WORM in the 1940s and early 1950s. Sandy Vorhies served as the Department's first female state commander from 2012-2014 and our new state commander, Sara Pierce is the Department's second female state commander who will lead us until June 2022.

(Left) Sandy Vorhies currently serving as the State Saddest, was the Department's first female state commander from 2012-2014. She is the Department's AMVET of the Year for 2020 for her continued service to AMVETS.

Jan Brown, of AMVETS Post 44 in Struthers, is the first female national commander of AMVETS. She took office in August of 2019 and her term runs through August 2021 due to COVID-19 restrictions. During Brown's tenure, she forged new relationships by visiting the President of Taiwan, helped organize two successful Rolling To Remember events, one of which was at the White House in 2020 and the most recent one (2021) had thousands of bikers participate from around the country.

She also helped improve mental health services and outcomes through the AMVETS Heal Team initiatives and unique partnerships with the VA, advocated for women veterans, participated in hundreds of military ceremonies and other events around the country while taking the time to help out her own Post here at home by providing food for veterans on multiple occasions, planting a Victory Garden and other events.

Brown's National Testimonial Dinner was held at Post 44 on July 10, 2021 and she hands over the reins to a new National Commander in August 2021.

(Left) An all-women's post formed in October of 1953 and was chartered in February 1954. AMVETS Post 34's first commander was Francis May who served in the U.S. Army as a nurse. Inaugural officers were: Betty Gerhardt (1st Vice), Amelia Charnesky (2nd Vice), Lorraine Harty (3rd Vice), Elsie Niedermeier (Adjutant), Helen Mangold (Finance), Evelyn Gray (Service), Betty Gray (Public Relations Officer), Mary Maffei (Chaplain), Julia Gura (Judge Advocate), Pauline Moszezynski (Provost Marshal), Victoria Schlosser (Sgt. At Arms) and Mary Butler (Historian). The photo is from the 1953 installation banquet at Post 34.

75th Anniversary

AMVETS Department of Ohio celebrates 75 years of service

The Ohio AMVET was the Department's award-winning newspaper was published continuously from 1947 until 1985. After 1985 it was published as a quarterly magazine until recently when it was converted to electronic delivery. The electronic version (a in-house produced .pdf) could be printed in full-color with any laser printer. The Ohio AMVET ceased overall publication sometime between 2016-and 2017. Today the Department sends out a weekly e-newsletter, called the Weekly Roundup. The Ohio AMVET was originally known as the Miami Valley Veteran News, but was acquired by AMVETS Department of Ohio in August of 1945 in which the name was changed to The Ohio Veteran. In early 1950, the name of the paper was changed again to The Ohio AMVET. The paper won multiple state and national awards to include Best Publication (multiple years), Best Design, Best Writing and other categories.

Dear Sir or Madam:

This is in response to your request for a copy of your organization's group exemption letter.

We issued a determination letter in May 1945, which recognized your organization as exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(19) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Based on the information supplied, we also recognized your organization's named subordinates as exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(19) of the Internal Revenue Code. Your organization and each of its subordinates are required to file Form 990, return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, only if the gross receipts each year are normally more than $25,000. If a return is required, it must be filed by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of the organization's annual accounting period. The law imposes a penalty of $10 a day, up to a maximum of $5,000, when a return is filed late, unless there is a reasonable cause for the delay.

Unless specifically excepted, your organization and its subordinates are liable for taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) on remuneration of $100 or more paid to each of its employees during a calendar year. Your organization and its subordinates are also liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

This determination is based on your organization's representation that at least 75 percent of its members are past or present members of the Armed Forces of the United States defined under section 501(c)(19) of the Code. It is also based on the representation that substantially all of the other members, if any, are individuals who are cadets, or are spouses, widows, or widowers of past or present members of the Armed Forces of the United States or of cadets.

Based on your organization's representation that at least 90 percent of its members are war veterans and that it is organized and operated primarily for purposes consistent with its current status as a war veterans organization, donors can deduct contributions made to or for the use of your organization.

Your organization is not required to file federal income tax returns unless it is subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If an organization is subject to this tax, it must file an income tax return on Form 990-T, Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return. In this letter, we are not determining whether any of your organization's present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 5123 of the Code.

IRS TAX EXEMPT LETTER

Each year, at least 90 days before the end of your organization's annual accounting period, please send these items to the Internal Revenue Service Center at the address shown below:

1. A statement describing any changes during the year in the purposes, character, or method of operation of your organization's subordinates;
2. A list showing the names, mailing addresses (including Postal ZIP Codes), actual addresses if different, and Employer Identification Numbers of subordinates that since the previous report:
 - a. Changed names or addresses;
 - b. Were deleted from the roster; or
 - c. Were added to the roster
3. For subordinates to be added, attach:
 - a. A statement that the information on which the present group exemption letter is based applies to the new subordinates;
 - b. A statement that each has given your organization written authorization to add its name to the roster;
 - c. A list to which the Service previously issued exemption rulings or determination letters;
 - d. The street address of subordinates where the mailing address is a P.O. Box; and
4. If applicable, a statement that the group exemption roster did not change since the previous report.

The above information should be sent to the following address:

Internal Revenue Service Center
Attn: Entity Control Unit
Ogden, UT 84409

The law requires you to make your organization's annual return available for public inspection without charge for three years after the due date of the return. If your organization had a copy of its application for recognition of exemption on July 15, 1987, it is also required to make available for public inspection a copy of the exempted application, any supporting documents and the exemption letter to any individual who requests such documentation in person or in writing. You can charge only a reasonable fee for reproduction and actual postage costs for the copied materials. The law does not require you to provide copies of public inspection documents that are widely available, such as by posting the on the Internet (World Wide web).

You may be liable for a penalty of $20 a day for each day you do not make these documents available for public inspection (up to a maximum of $10,000 in the case of an annual return).

Your organization's Group Exemption Number is 0838.

If you have any questions, please call us at the telephone number in the heading of this letter.

RECOGNITION OF AMVETS TO PRESENT CLAIMS

Under authority of Section 200 of Public Law 844 of the 74th Congress, the Secretary of Veterans Affairs (VA) has accorded recognition of AMVETS and authorized the same to present claims for benefits under the Veterans Benefit Administration (VBA) and to assist veterans in the prosecution of their claims against the VA.

Section 301 and Section 302 of Public Law 346 of the 78th Congress similarly accords recognition to AMVETS in acting as counsel in the presentation of petitions for review of discharges and for other matters before the US Army and US Navy departments.

Section 200 of Public Law 844 of the 74th Congress provides that: "No fee or compensation of whatsoever nature shall be charged veterans or dependents for services rendered in connection with any claims in which the AMVETS (or other recognized organizations) hold Power of Attorney."

Only certain qualified individuals, recognized by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs (VA), as an AMVETS Accredited Representative, National or State Service Officer, are allowed to actually present claims and act on behalf of the claimant in the prosecution of claims.

Before the VA will recognize the AMVETS as a representative of any veteran's claim, it is necessary for the claimant to execute a Power of Attorney in favor of the AMVETS on the VA Form (Appointment of a Service Organization as Claimant Representative). The form should be executed by the claimant at the time he or she requests the recognized service officer to assist in the prosecution of a claim. Only one organization at a time can be recognized as the claimant's representative. Execution of the VA form in favor of another organization cancels all previously appointed representation.

Our service officers believe in SERVICE.

COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

Each post commander occupies a very important position in the organization and should exercise careful judgement when selecting chairs and committee members to develop post community activities.

A well-organized AMVETS post must have active committees appointed by the post commander to develop specific programs to achieve maximum impact.

Soon after election to office, each post commander should determine what committees are necessary to carry out the post's activities. Assist the committee chairs with committee member selection. Select the right person for the right job.

Every willing member in the post should be afforded an opportunity to serve on a committee. A good plan is to email or snail mail each member a letter or newsletter outlining what committees exist and what each one does. Encourage inactivemembers to be an active member of the post.

Have committee chairs give a brief report at each post meeting so all will know of the progress being made. It is especially important that the chairs of the post's membership committee report at each meeting and strategies and tactics for increasing/retaining membership are discussed on a regular basis.

On 28 June 2021, AMVETS Post 51 in Thornville conducted their annual fundraiser to benefit the three Dayton-area Fisher Houses. It consisted of a golf tournament, poker run, cornhole tournament and auction. Total raised was $23,305.

(Top) Post 1991 in Defiance participated in Memorial Day activities and (bottom) AMVETS Chapter 21 Riders (of Post 21 in Findlay) participated in Rolling to Remember, a national ride in Washington D.C. Memorial Day weekend 2021.

Membership

Eligibility

- Any person who served or is currently serving in the Armed Forces of the United States of America at any time after September 15, 1940 is eligible for regular membership in AMVETS provided such service, when terminated by discharge or release from active duty, be by honorable discharge, honorable separation or general discharge under honorable conditions.
- Any American citizen, as an American citizen, who served in the Armed Forces of an allied nation of the United States at any time after September 15, 1940 and before May 8, 1975 is eligible for regular membership in AMVETS, provided such service—when terminated by discharge or release from active duty—is by honorable discharge or honorable separation.
- No person who is a member of, or who advocates the principles of any organization believing in, or working for the overthrow of the United States Government by force, and no American citizen or permanent resident alien in the United States, one of its territories, possessions or the District of Columbia, who refuses to uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States shall be privileged to become, or continue to be, a member of this organization.
- All United States Reservists and National Guardsmen who are now serving, or have been honorably discharged since September 15, 1940 are eligible for regular membership in AMVETS, provided such service - when terminated by discharge or release from active duty - is by honorable discharge or honorable separation.

Types of Membership

- Member-at-Large: An eligible veteran may join AMVETS as a Member-at-Large of the AMVETS department without affiliating with a local Post. Departments issue the membership cards for Members- at-Large and determine the amount of dues.
- Life Member: An eligible veteran may become a Life Member of AMVETS. As a life member, you would not be asked to pay any membership dues at any time in the future. Dues are transmitted to the Department Headquarters with Life Membership Transmittal Forms, but the life membership cards are produced by National.
- National Charter Member: National Charter members are those who were affiliated with the organization during the years that AMVETS worked for and acquired its National Charter. They were members prior to December 31, 1947, and have maintained continuous membership. If ever dropped from the membership rolls, they lose their National Charter designation. Annual and life member cards are specially marked National Charter Member.
- Current Military Personnel: By becoming an AMVET while still on active duty, the service member will have all the benefits of membership now. To obtain the names of personnel in their area now serving in the Armed Forces, Posts may go to the local or county veteran's agent. Records available there would not contain the current address of the serviceman, but this could be obtained from his/her parent or spouse.

Life Members

Life members pay their dues once, and will never be asked to pay dues again.

- The cost of a life membership is $250. One fourth ($62.50) is retained by the Post, one fourth ($62.50) is retained by the Department, and one half ($125.00) is retained by National.

- Life memberships are initiated at the Post level by using a Life Member Transmittal Form. Please fill the form out completely and legibly. Do not list any life member on the Dues & Remittance form.
- Send the Life Member Transmittal Form and a check for $250 to AMVETS Department of Ohio to be processed.
- A life member may purchase a gold life card through AMVETS National Headquarters at any time. A special form will need to be submitted for a gold card.

Annual Members

Annual members pay their dues for the membership year (Sep 1 - Aug 31).

New: Have the member fill out an application in its entirety. After determining their eligibility and they have been accepted as a member, complete a 4-part temporary membership card. Fill in all the information they have provided, the more accurate a member's data is, the better.

(yellow), and 4 - Post copy (pink).

- The card is made in 4-part carbon copy: 1 - Member's card, 2 - National copy (white), 3 - Department copy (yellow), and 4 - Post copy (pink).
- Please write legibly, the information provided on the card will be used for the roster.
- The new member can expect their plastic card to arrive from National in the mail after 30-60 days

Renewal: National Headquarters generates pre-printed membership cards for each annual member that was paid for the previous year.

Submitting: When submitting dues for annual members, a Dues & Remittance Form as well as a Dues Recap Form is required. The Department and National copies of the new member cards must be mailed with the rest of the forms in the membership submission.

Dues & Remittance Form

- Each member, whether they are new or a renewal, is to be listed on this form.
- Member ID#s should be listed with all renewals.
- If a member's information (address, phone number, last name, etc.) has changed, write the updated information beneath their name and member ID# in the space provided.
- Retain Post copies of all forms submitted to Department.

Dues Recap Form

Fill in the appropriate spaces with the number of renewals, new members, and life members your check is intending to pay for.

Dues Amount

- National: $15
- Department: $10
- Post: Whatever amount you decided when filling out the Post Revalidation Form. This portion of the dues stays at the Post, so you will only be sending $25 per member.

Replacement Cards

Annual or Life Members should use a Replacement Card Form and send it to Department along with $5. Be sure to include a Dues Recap Form.

Transfers

Any member of AMVETS in good standing may change his/her membership from one Post and Department to another with the approval of both Posts and if applicable, both Departments concerned, without repaying current annual dues.

Completely fill out a Transfer Form and mail it to Department Headquarters. Life Members who transfer and wish to replace their membership card with one indicating their new Post number must fill out the Replacement Card Form and remit $5 for the card.

NOTE: In order to qualify as a Delegate or Alternate Delegate at a National Convention, an AMVETS member must be a member of the Post to which he/she has transferred to, for at least six (6) months prior to the Convention.

Deceased Members

If a member of your Post passes away, please notify Department Headquarters immediately, utilizing the Deceased Member Notification Form. Memorial Certificates for presentation to the deceased member's family can be obtained through National Headquarters. Do not hold deceased members until the end of the year, it is not fair to the family.

REMEMBER

- All membership should be transmitted to the Department in a timely manner. It is recommended that each Post submit membership at least once a month, after your Post Membership meeting. Do not hold membership under any circumstances. Your new member deserves to have their membership processed immediately.
- All forms can be found on our Department website at www.ohamvets.org under the "Forms" tab.

Always double check your paperwork!

Life Members

Life members pay their dues once, and will never be asked to pay dues again.

- A member can send an email to the Post Commander/Adjutant of the Post they would like to leave, asking permission. If the Commander/Adjutant approves, they should forward the email on to the Post Commander/Adjutant of the Post the member wishes to be a part of. If that Commander/Adjutant approves, they should forward the entire email chain to Department Headquarters, so Department approval (along with the entire email chain showing both Posts’ approval) can be sent to National.
- Life Members who transfer and wish to replace their membership card with one indicating their new Post number must fill out the Replacement Card Form and remit $5 for the card.

NOTE: In order to qualify as a Delegate or Alternate Delegate at a National Convention, an AMVETS member must be a member of the Post to which he/she has transferred to, for at least six (6) months prior to the Convention.

Deceased Members

If a member of your Post passes away, please notify Department Headquarters immediately via email.

REMEMBER

- All membership should be transmitted to the Department in a timely manner. It is recommended that each Post submit membership at least once a month, after your Post Membership meeting. Do not hold membership under any circumstances. Your new member deserves to have their membership processed immediately.

Veterans
Welfare

What is VAVS?

The Department of Veterans Affairs Voluntary Service (VAVS) Program offers post members an opportunity to provide direct service to our veterans by volunteering their time and talents to our hospitalized veterans.

According to the AMVETS Constitution

All posts shall conduct at least two veterans service programs and one community service program per fiscal year (July 1-June 30) for the Department of Ohio. Each Post shall report directly to the District Commander the activities of the Post's veterans and community service programs. Failure to comply with the programs or reporting shall be considered cause for suspension, revocation, or placement of trusteeship of the post charter.

The 'Forgotten Veteran'

The AMVETS VAVS Program is vital at the Post, State, and National levels, because today we are the ones able-bodied, but someday we may become the "Forgotten Veteran". Everyday we task ourselves with the job of never letting each other and the world forget what veterans have done for America. It is time for us, as veterans, to do our part by working together to let the public know that we care and we will always remember our fellow veterans.

Each VA Medical Center and Outpatient Clinic has a person in charge of volunteers. The title of this individual is usually Chief of Voluntary Service. You can contact that office through our VAVS Representatives or deputies to help get ideas of what is needed at these facilities.

Nursing homes in your area are a good source for volunteer work for veterans housed in their facility. This gives you a chance to introduce yourself as a representative of your post and AMVETS.

Delivering meals for home-bound veterans is another way posts can be of service to the veterans in your community. For example, Post 21 in Findlay delivered meals to home-bound veterans throughout the lockdown phase of the COVID-19 pandemic from March 2020 to June 2020.

VAVS and COVID-19

The VA is grateful for the continued volunteer response to help America's heroes during this global pandemic. The VA continues to engage volunteers in essential assignments throughout the state. Some smaller VA facilities continue to be virtual only and are not accepting volunteers at this time. The larger facilities have varying protocols in place. Please contact your AMVETS VAVS representative (See appointment list in this Guidebook) for details on each site.

A comprehensive COVID-19 response plan can be found on the VA's website.

VA Voluntary Service (VAVS) is following revised protocols in accepting donations during the ongoing response to the coronavirus pandemic. All donations of personal protective equipment (PPE) (i.e., masks, gloves, gowns, face shields) must be evaluated and approved by a medical center director-appointed infection control committee designee or group, before entering the facility supply chain.

All donations of handmade masks should also be evaluated by the appointee identified above, and if approved the items must be sanitized and distributed with direction as to their use, with explicit clarification that handmade masks are not considered PPE.

All donations will be processed through the Office of Voluntary Service in accordance with VHA Directive 4721 to ensure consistent tracking and acknowledgment of COVID-19 donations.

VAVS and COVID-19*MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS AFFAIRS12 August 2021*

As of 13 August 2021, we are expanding our COVID-19 vaccine mandate to include Hybrid Title 38, and Title 5 Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) health care personnel—such as psychologists, pharmacists, social workers, nursing assistants, physical therapists, respiratory therapists, peer specialists, medical support assistants, engineers, housekeepers and other clinical, administrative and infrastructure support employees. This also includes VA volunteers and contractors. Effectively, this means that any Veterans Health Administration (VHA) employee, volunteer, or contractor who works in VHA facilities, visits VHA facilities, or provides direct care to those we serve will need to be vaccinated. Each employee will have 8 weeks to be fully vaccinated and will need to provide proof of vaccination to their local VHA Occupational Health Office.

We're doing this for the same reason we mandated vaccines for Title 38 VHA employees last month: because it's the best way to keep Veterans, caregivers, VA employees, volunteers and contractors safe.

We've already lost thousands of Veterans and hundreds of colleagues to this deadly disease, and now, the Delta variant is causing exponential increases in infections, hospitalizations and deaths once again. But you don't have to listen to me about the dangers of the Delta variant—listen to the doctors. A doctor in Alabama told a harrowing story about the variant last month, saying that unvaccinated COVID-19 patients are begging her, right before they are put on a ventilator, for the vaccine. But at that point, all she can do is hold their hands and say, "I'm so sorry, but it's too late." Many of those patients die days later.

That's how dangerous the Delta variant is, both for Veterans and VHA health care personnel. Fortunately, the vaccine provides strong protection against COVID-19 infection, hospitalization and death—which is why all VHA health care personnel must be vaccinated.

As with last month's mandate, I have discussed this decision with leaders at VHA, as well as leading health care experts—all of whom agreed that this is the best course of action to protect the Nation's Veterans and their families. I've again notified our union partners. And, as I noted last month, mandates are supported by most national medical organizations—including the American Hospital Association, America's Essential Hospitals, the American Medical Association, American Nurses Association, American College of Physicians, American Academy of Pediatrics, Association of American Medical Colleges and National Association for Home Care and Hospice, and a Multisociety group of the leading Infectious Disease Societies.

So please, if you have not already been vaccinated, do so as soon as you can. All VA employees are eligible to be vaccinated without charge at any of our facilities. You will receive 4 hours of paid administrative leave after attesting that you have been vaccinated. And if you have any outstanding questions about the vaccine, you can find more information about its safety and effectiveness in these FAQs or view clinician and Veteran videos here.

The bottom line is any unvaccinated employees who interact with Veterans right now are putting those Veterans at risk—and that's a risk we simply cannot take.

Thank you to those of you who have already been vaccinated, and to those of you who will get vaccinated now. There is no better way to keep Veterans or our colleagues safe.

Ways to Assist Hospitalized Veterans

- Go in and talk to the veteran and get to know a little about them. Possibly bring a small gift or care kit and use it as a conversation opener. Make sure you set aside enough time for a meaningful visit. An alternative could be to schedule a video or virtual visit until such time in-person visits are permitted. Virtual visits can be done through several different platforms (Zoom, Google, Microsoft Teams, WebEx, Facetime etc.). Check with the individual facility to see what technology they have available.
- If your post has a budget to allow for special items, you should check to see if any veteran has any special needs. A fundraiser can be held at your post to obtain funds for these items. Many veterans in nursing homes not only wish for companionship, but they also need to know they are not forgotten!
- Send cards on birthdays and holidays, or just a “Thinking of You” card or note. Offer to read them a story or book.
- Moving into a nursing home is not always easy. If you are working with a local home, you could ask them to notify you when a veteran arrives, and in the first few days go to visit this veteran. You could make up a “Care Kit” and include hygiene items, paper, pens, envelopes, stamps, etc.
- Purchase a packet of greeting cards and stamps so the veteran may stay in touch with their loved ones. You may even offer to address the envelope and put on the stamp, so all they have to do choose the card and mail it.
- Remember, not all veterans are men; there are many women veterans as well. Always be prepared if you are presenting gender items.
- If the veteran is in need, you may direct them to the County Veteran Service Commission (CVSC). Keep the name, address, and phone number handy at all times. Numbers for the CVSC are located in your phone book under the county in which you reside. There is a VSC in every county in Ohio.
- Check your post shut-in list. This veteran may need transportation to the doctor, prescriptions picked up, or transportation for other errands such as grocery shopping. Sometimes a spouse may need a ride to the hospital for a short visit with the confined veteran. Also, companionship may be all that is needed. Ask for volunteers from your post. Check with nursing home administration to make sure their insurance will cover a veteran that you may take off the premises. This is important – you and your Post do not need to take on the additional liability.
- Ask the OVH or VA Medical Center for a “Wish List”. Make no promises until you have checked with your post about the money to acquire such items through a possible fundraiser. Be certain to check the cost of the item and the feasibility of raising the money. Also, be sure to communicate with the facility that the need is still there and has not already been taken care of.
- If you place a large item in any facility, ask if you can put a small notice on the item: “Donated by AMVETS Post”. Many users can appreciate these items, especially if they are members of the AMVETS family. Use an AMVETS logo (decals are available through Department Headquarters).
- Check with local VA and OVH about craft projects for the residents. Puzzles are usually a good idea, especially for those with limited mobility. They can help keep the mind alert. Provide reading material, as well as refreshments. Contact your AMVETS Service Officers or the CVSC to get information on Veterans Benefits for veterans in private nursing homes.

- ◆ There should be an annual donation of 200 handheld computer games to be divided equally among the five VA Facilities. The Service Foundation should consider this as an item at their annual budget meeting.
- ◆ The Department of Ohio will initiate a training program for VAVS Representatives and Deputies.
- ◆ AMVETS has adopted a Thank-A-Vet Program, using 250 veterans from Veterans Hall at the Ohio Veterans Home.
- ◆ At least once a year, the posts will have a one-on-one visit at a VA Facility or Nursing Home in their community, instead of a party.

If your posts would like to suggest any other VAVS Programs, please fill out the form below and return to Department Headquarters. Thank you!

State Programs

The Post Commander occupies a very important position and will need to exercise careful judgment when selecting chairs and committee members to develop specific post community activities.

A well organized AMVETS Post must have active committees appointed by the Post Commander to develop specific programs to the maximum. Soon after election to office, the Post Commander should determine what committees are necessary to most effectively carry on the post's activities. Appoint a chair to head up these committees. Assist the chairman in selecting other members to serve with them. Careful attention should be given to the selection of committee chair and to fitting the right person to the job.

Every willing member in the post should be offered an opportunity to serve on a committee. A good plan is to notify each member of the various committees to be appointed and inviting them to express a preference as to the committee on which they would like to serve. You will be surprised to find that you may hear from members who have previously been inactive, but who are appreciative of an opportunity to take an active part in your AMVETS Post affairs.

Have your committee chairmen give a brief report at each post meeting so all will know of the progress being made. It is especially important that the chairman of your post membership committee report at each meeting and that some time be devoted to membership discussion. Throughout the year, AMVETS Department of Ohio, in conjunction with support from districts and posts, sponsor's statewide programs and events for enjoyment and friendly competition. Here are just a few:

- ◆ Bowling Tournament – March

- Special Olympics Oath

Special Olympics is an organization dedicated to increasing physical fitness opportunities for children and adults with intellectual disabilities through sports training and athletic competitions. Through Special Olympics programs, intellectually disabled individuals acquire a more positive self-image, which is carried over to their participation in community life.

AMVETS participates with the Ohio Special Olympics unified team bowling training and bowling competition for the intellectually disabled. Bowling is an excellent exercise and bowling facilities are accessible throughout the year in most communities. Start your Special Olympics program now. The State Chair will be more than happy to assist you in your endeavors.

About Special Olympics

The concept of Special Olympics began in the early 1960s when Eunice Kennedy Shriver started a day camp for people with intellectual disabilities. The first national meet was held at Soldier Field in Chicago in 1968 for 1,000 athletes from the United States and Canada. Shortly thereafter, Ohio began a Special Olympics program under the name of the Ohio Athletic Association. Special Olympics Ohio became incorporated in 1975.

Today, Special Olympics Inc. is the world’s largest provider of fitness training, education, and athletic competition — coupled with social, life, and leadership skill development opportunities — for children and adults with intellectual disabilities. Special Olympics is a worldwide movement of more than 4.4 million athletes in 170 countries. With competitions around the world, daily training sessions and family leaders, athlete leaders and volunteers extending our message every day, Special Olympics is no longer just an event. We are a movement, inviting the world not only to attend Games but to think, feel and act differently about everything.

Each recipient will receive a permanent award in recognition of this accomplishment.

CARILLON

The Ohio Department of AMVETS with the support of their members, the Auxiliary, Jr. AMVETS and Sad Sacks installed a Carillon at the Ohio Veterans Home, Sandusky, and it was dedicated on June 4, 1978. This is a project in which each of us can be justly proud and one that will be enjoyed by the residents of the Home and those that care to visit. We plan to maintain this installation so that it may be enjoyed by future generations. With plans by the Veterans Administration well underway for a National Cemetery in Northern Ohio near Cleveland, Ohio AMVETS should be prepared to place a carillon on the grounds of the new cemetery at its dedication. Contributions to the maintenance fund should be made payable to AMVETS Carillon Fund and forwarded to State Headquarters.

WHITE CLOVER

A White Clover sale involves organization and work. Neither is anything to be afraid of; neither is an excuse for inaction. Whether it be for charity, hospital visitation or community service, every member of AMVETS should be proud to stand on a street corner or ring doorbells to sell White Clovers - not only because unselfish service to others is the highest form of distinction, but also because unselfish service takes it's most admired form when we walk with the crowd in the road.

Therefore, remind those members of our Posts who are reluctant to devote the time or who fear being embarrassed because they engage in the somewhat humble act of selling White Clovers, that everyone in a community admires the man or woman who will undertake an activity worthy of the best in human nature.

Community service is so deeply rooted in the whole reason for AMVETS that the greatest concern of a Post Commander should be the fear that he might leave undone those things that ought to be done. A full fledged White Clover sale program, proudly conducted annually and with every available ounce of individual effort expended by all members of the Post, is one of the things AMVETS do best.

A trophy will be awarded each year at the State Convention to the Post who collected the most money in their White Clover Drive the previous year. A winner will be selected based on the Post's report to Department Headquarters. Almost as much work is required for an AMVETS member to collect a quarter from a fellow citizen for a White Clover, as is required for an AMVET member to put that quarter to work in a program that benefits the community in which they both live.

But we believe this effort is worthwhile, so that our fellow citizens can willingly contribute in small measure for AMVETS to undertake organized activities for the common good in large measure. White Clovers should be ordered six weeks prior to your scheduled sale from AMVETS Department Headquarters.

AMVETS Blood Donor Program

When individuals donate blood, they give a precious gift, the 'Gift of Life' which is needed to treat the injured or sick in your area. An adequate supply of blood is always in need and our members can help meet the demand with a regularly scheduled Blood Donor Program. Contact your local Red Cross, hospital or Blood Service Center to establish or renew your program.

In appreciation and recognition of AMVET members who regularly and unselfishly give blood, you can award an AMVET Blood Donor Pin. Simply complete the information requested below and forward it to our attention. In turn, we will provide you with an AMVETS Blood Donor Pin and a National Donor Pin and a National Donor Certificate to present at an appropriate ceremony.

The AMVETS Blood Donor Pin is a small, red plastic droplet with an inset of the AMVETS logo. This pin signifies that a member has donated one gallon (8 pints) or more to an AMVETS sponsored program. Any recipient would be proud to add this pin to their collection.

Auxiliaries are organized with the approval and cooperation of individual Posts. Auxiliaries assist in Post programs and initiate service and welfare programs of their own. The Auxiliary is organized with a State Department and National structure like that of AMVETS.

AMVETS Service Foundation

Ohio Department of AMVETS Service Foundation, Inc. is a 501(c)19 veteran organization that was founded in 1957 to help support and fund the programs of the AMVETS Department of Ohio and continues to do that to this day through the Clothing Donation Program and the management of Ohio AMVETS Charities (OAC).

Sons of AMVETS

Eligibility for membership in the Sons of AMVETS is limited to all male descendants, grandsons, adopted sons, stepsons, fathers, husbands, widowers, and brothers of AMVETS members, deceased AMVETS members, or deceased service personnel who would have been eligible for membership in the parent organization, and is at least 18 years old. This is not to include in-laws of any type. All Charters for the Sons of AMVETS shall be issued by Sons of AMVETS National Headquarters, at the direction of the National Commander, Sons of AMVETS.

AMVETS Riders

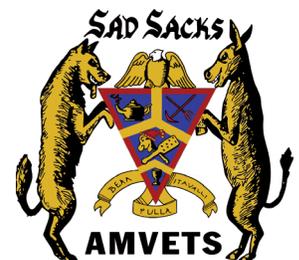

Membership in the Post Chapter shall be limited to members in good standing of AMVETS, AMVETS Ladies Auxiliary, Sons of AMVETS, and Junior AMVETS of the age of 16 with a signed, notarized consent form from the Parent or Guardian. Riding members must own a motorcycle. Members must show a current, valid AMVETS, AMVETS Ladies Auxiliary, Sons of AMVETS, or Junior AMVETS membership card, a valid state drivers license with a motorcycle endorsement, a valid state motorcycle registration, and proof of insurance. The member's name must appear on the registration to be considered an AMVETS Rider.

Junior AMVETS

Eligibility for membership in the Junior AMVETS is limited to the sons, daughters, brothers and sisters, and grandchildren of AMVETS, deceased members of AMVETS, and members of the Auxiliary and servicemen who died and who would have been eligible for membership in the AMVETS, including all children that they may be legal guardian of, from the ages of 7 to, and including 17 years. A local organization may be formed by 10 eligible individuals, approved by both the local AMVETS Post and the State Department of AMVETS, and if one exists, the State Department of Junior AMVETS. Charters will be issued by the National Department, Junior AMVETS.

Sad Sacks

AMVETS recognizes a subordinate organization known as AMVETS Sad Sacks of American Veterans. Governed by their own Constitution and By-Laws, the Sad Sacks membership is limited to members in good standing of the AMVETS. The Sad Sacks are the official Fun and Honor group of the AMVETS. With the lack of a Sackettes chapter in Ohio, they will be taking both AMVETS members and AMVETS Ladies Auxiliary members in good standing going forward.

Guidelines for the suspension or expulsion of a member are identified in the Uniform Code of Procedure of the AMVETS National Bylaws, Appendix B. A post can suspend or expel any member showing just cause, such as disloyalty, neglect of duty, dishonesty, or conduct unbecoming a member of AMVETS. The post's charges should be committed to writing and presented to the member. According to the National Bylaws, Appendix B, any member who has been disciplined has the right to appeal his suspension or expulsion to the department executive committee. The decision of that committee shall be final.

Nominations and Elections

The AMVETS National Constitution mandates that posts hold their annual officers election between May 1 and June 30. Within 30 days of the election, posts must forward, to the department and National Headquarters, documentation stating the names of their newly elected officers. Post revalidation must occur no later than July 15. Elected and appointed officers may be installed and assume office no later than July 15.

Balloting

The election of officers to the department and the selection of delegates for the national convention should take place during the regular annual meeting. Some posts may find this impossible; therefore, regular polling days can be set up to ensure that the election is carried out in a fair manner.

To qualify as a voting delegate or act as an alternate at the national convention, an AMVET must be in good standing with his post or be a member of a post to which he has been transferred for at least six months prior to the convention.

Most post bylaws recommend that candidates running for office receive a simple majority (more than half) of the votes cast to be elected. When more than two candidates run for office and neither receives a majority on the first ballot, the run-off election is usually between the two candidates receiving the highest votes. Each candidate should be given the opportunity to decline the nomination.

When nominations and elections are held during the same meeting, the following procedure should be used:

Chairman: "Nominations are now in order for the office of post adjutant."

First Post Member: "Mr. Chairman, I nominate AMVET Jones."

Second Post Member: "Mr. Chairman, I nominate AMVET Smith."

Third Post Member: "Mr. Chairman, I nominate AMVET Gray."

Note: Nominations do not require a second.

As nominations are made, the chairman will ask each nominee if he will accept the nomination.

Chairman: "Are there any further nominations? Are there any further nominations? Are there any further nominations? Hearing none, nominations are closed."

Note: There may be a motion to close nominations, in which case it must be seconded and passed by a majority. A motion to close nominations cannot be debated; such a motion is not in order until a reasonable time has been allowed.

The chairman then reads the list of nominees who have accepted and announces: "We will now proceed to the election of post adjutant. AMVETS Miller and Brown will serve as tellers."

The tellers with the assistance of the post provost marshal will distribute, collect and count the ballots. After the votes have been tallied, the tellers will report the results to the chairman who will announce those elected as well as the count.

Officers and Their Duties

Commander

The commander, as the senior executive officer of the post, shall preside at all meetings of the post and executive committee but may delegate a vice commander to serve as a temporary substitute when needed. The commander is an ex officio member of all committees.

The commander directs and supervises the activities of all elected and appointed officers and committees. Together with the adjutant and finance officer, the commander is responsible for all monies received by the post. He also has automatic access to the online data base. He may view a roster 24/7 and update the contact/address information for any post member. The Commander may add new members online and renew members online.

The commander will ensure that the post meets regularly on the appointed dates unless otherwise dictated by the post membership. It is the commander's responsibility to disseminate, to the membership, all pertinent information that is sent from the department and National Headquarters.

In addition to announcements at post meetings, all information should be displayed on post bulletin boards and published in the post newsletter. The commander, or a member appointed by him, shall represent the post at memorial services and community functions, where it is customary that AMVETS or a veteran's organization be represented.

The commander shall be the official post spokesman on all matters of public interest concerning post activities. The public relations officer (PRO) may be called on to assist with press releases, position statements and speech preparation. The position of commander is filled in regular elections as prescribed by the post's constitution and bylaws.

Vice Commander(s)

Posts may determine the number of vice commanders they wish to elect and the duties of the vice-commanders shall be prescribed by the post constitution. It is customary to elect two vice commanders who may be assigned duties by the commander or post executive committee. The first vice commander serves as the membership chairman and the second vice commander is responsible for programs and their promotion. In the absence of the commander, the vice-commanders in order of their rank shall preside at meetings and represent the commander. Like the Commander, he too can access post member information online. He has the same privileges as the commander.

Adjutant

The adjutant provides the administrative support for the post and is charged with taking minutes and maintaining all records (in conjunction with the finance officer). He is also responsible for correspondence and handles the routine business of the post. The adjutant is the official contact person for the post and serves as the liaison officer between the post and its community, the department and National Headquarters. Among the adjutant responsibilities:

- Maintain the Post's electronic Roster. Ensure service dates, birthdates and e-mails are current for all members and leaders. Each member's file should provide all the information given on the original application: name, address, branch of service, home and work phone numbers and date of acceptance into AMVETS;
- Maintain records of current and past officers. Forward a new list of officers to the department and national headquarters within 30 days of the election. Any changes made on the post level must be documented and forwarded to the headquarters no later than July 15;
- Update a member's record when addresses or e-mails change. E-mail membership when a member passes;
- Keep the membership informed of all post functions and activities. Ensure that all members are notified in advance of the time, place and date of post meetings. Take particular care to ensure that all members are properly notified at least 30 days in advance of all elections of officers, change in CBL, etc.;
- Be present at all meetings (or have an assistant in attendance) to record all business transacted and report on the minutes of the previous post meeting or executive committee meetings;
- Present all communications and correspondence at regular post and executive committee meetings;
- Keep a complete record of the post's property, including a description of the item, its estimated value, its location and any other pertinent information deemed necessary. Trustees of post homes and clubs are sometimes held responsible for the safety and maintenance of post properties. This, however, should not be interpreted as being in conflict with procedures already established by the post for custody of the property;
- Apply to the IRS for an employer identification number (EIN), by completing SS-4 Form and filing IRS 990 Form as required;
- File all correspondence according to the subject matter. Keep copies of all letters sent to the department and National Headquarters; and

- Maintain separate files for members, correspondence, D&R Forms as well as for post publicity and fund-raising programs and any other topics relating to post activities.
- Like the Commander, he too can access post member information online. He has the same privileges as the commander.

Finance Officer

The post finance officer is the treasurer. Responsibilities include receiving membership dues, banking, disbursement of monies and accounting for all post funds. The finance officer and one other post officer, usually the commander, sign and countersign all post checks only after payment is authorized. Credit card management and use rules are essential to conducting digital business.

The post finance officer should collect all monies due the post and keep an account of receipts for each member. All members in arrears should be notified personally. He should see that all post funds are secured in a bank account.

Before a new post finance officer assumes his duties, his predecessor must have been given a "clean opinion" by the auditors, the audit committee or the finance committee. (The new finance officer does not want to become involved in any problems that existed prior to his appointment.)

The finance officer should make a financial report at all regular meetings (to be included in the meeting minutes) and prepare a complete financial statement and budget to report at the annual post meeting. He should also report to the post on all receipts collected and on all bills outstanding and paid. Major expenditures, and those not within the current budget, should first be reported to the executive committee and at a post meeting.

The finance officer may be assisted and guided by a finance committee of three or four members appointed by the commander with the approval of the post executive committee. The primary duty of a finance committee is to provide an annual audit of the books and assist in the preparation of the annual budget. The commander, being a member of all committees by virtue of his office, may assist the finance committee.

An important function of the finance officer is to coordinate his duties relating to membership with the adjutant or membership contact. The finance officer receives and dispenses all money and should work with whoever is responsible for issuing membership cards. At least once each month, he shall transmit to the department (or in the case of a non-department state, to the national headquarters) any monies collected from annual dues during the preceding month.

Transmittal or remittance forms provided by the AMVETS National Headquarters shall accompany such payment.

The finance officer should handle all dues revenues and membership cards. Although the actual issuance of the membership cards may be done by or in conjunction with the membership contact, the finance officer should handle the funds and account for the cards. The cards are an important investment and should be inventoried upon delivery and then locked up in a fireproof container. The finance officer may be given permission from the Post Commander (via email or telephone call to the National Membership Director) to obtain access all the online capabilities.

AMVETS Accounting System for Posts and Departments: Because an elected finance officer may have little or no bookkeeping/accounting experience, an easy and efficient accounting system must be adopted. The “double entry bookkeeping” system requires little experience, time and effort. For this system to work, each and every financial transaction must be recorded. The finance officer uses an income voucher or disbursement voucher to authorize every transaction. When an income voucher is written and posted to the general ledger, the money that is deposited in the bank should agree with the voucher and general ledger. Likewise, when a disbursement voucher is written, the voucher should agree with the invoice and the check.

A double-entry bookkeeping system requires at least two entries, a debit and a credit for every transaction. When funds are received, there is a debit (or increase to the cash account) and a credit (or increase to an income account such as membership dues.) When monies are paid out there is a credit entry made to the cash account to decrease its balance and a debit entry to another account such as national membership dues, when these monies are paid to AMVETS National Headquarters. One ledger sheet per month can be used to show all transactions.

There should be a separate column for each account. The account balances at the end of each month should be carried forward as the beginning balance of the next month. Reconciliation of your bank statement to your cash account is required. The balance in the checking account should always agree with the total cash balance recorded in the general ledger.

The post must have a bank account, which requires two signatures on each check. When officers are changed, the newly authorized signatures must be given to the bank via appropriately completed signature cards. The officers who will sign the checks on the account must sign the signature cards.

Many banks will give a veterans organization an account that will be free from service charges and other fees, and the finance officer should inquire about the bank’s policy toward veterans groups.

When opening a new account, the finance officer must take the adopted resolution, which instructs that a post bank account is to be opened to the local bank along with the post’s federal I.D. number. The resolution may read as follows:

Be It Resolved: That the finance officer of AMVETS Post (number), Department of (state), be instructed to open a checking account in the name of the above post at a local bank of his choice. Checks on the above account must have the signature of the finance officer and the signature of either the commander or adjutant of the above named post.

All posts are required by the bylaws to have the finance officer bonded in a sum at least equal to the amount of the liquid assets for which he may be accountable. The bond does not take the place of insurance in any way. It pays only for loss due to fraud or dishonest acts of the person bonded.

Budget: Every post, small or large, should have a balanced budget. A balanced budget means that income (or all cash received) and expenses (or all cash disbursed) are equal. This is the only way to handle the finances of the post or department.

The post finance committee should meet at least two months prior to the annual meeting to set up a budget. Copies of the recommended budget should be distributed to the membership during the finance report at the annual meeting. It is every member's right to know where money is being spent.

After the adoption of the budget by the membership, it is the finance officer's responsibility to insist that the post limit its expenditures to the budgeted items within the anticipated income. This will provide stability and build a financial reserve for unanticipated expenses while maintaining a balanced budget.

The Internal Revenue Service: Under the provisions of a Bureau of Internal Revenue Ruling all AMVETS posts are entitled to exemption from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(19). For this reason, AMVETS maintains a group exemption that helps to expedite coverage.

You must annually file information returns on the IRS 990 Form if required by current IRS regulations. This form may be obtained from the Internal Revenue Service and is required to be filed on or before the 15th day of the 5th month following the close of your accounting period. The "Post Revalidation Form" must be marked indicating whether or not your post is required to file IRS Form 990.

Bonding: Bonding is mandated in the AMVETS Bylaws, Article VII, Section 1: All national, department and post officials handling AMVETS funds in excess of $5,000 shall be properly bonded with a good and solvent bonding and surety company, acceptable to the United States Treasury, as surety to cover the average amount of AMVETS funds, handled by such individual in a single year.

In case of delinquencies in the payment of accounts due the department or National Headquarters, action shall be taken at once by the proper officials to bring about an immediate and complete settlement. The National Executive Committee shall approve the bonds provided by national officials, and the department executive committee shall approve those provided by department and post officials.

Changeover: Prior to the annual meeting, the post's books must be in good order so that an adequate financial report can be made and the books turned over to the newly elected finance officer. In the transition, the new finance officer should provide a written receipt to the retiring officer on the surrender of the post books and monies.

Judge Advocate

The post judge advocate is responsible for drafting the post's constitution and bylaws (CBL) for presentation to and adoption by the general post membership. The original post CBL, together with any changes, additions or corrections must be sent to the department judge advocate for review, approval and forwarding to the national headquarters. The National Membership Department maintains a permanent file of important documents on each post. A post may adopt its own CBL, provided the provisions are not in conflict with the department or national constitution and bylaws.

Historian

The historian shall compile and maintain complete historical records of post activities.

Provost Marshal

The provost marshal is responsible for keeping order at post meetings, for the care of post colors and for carrying out other duties as assigned.

Service Officer

General duties of an AMVETS post service officer include the following:

- Sharing information about veteran's benefits at post meetings and other AMVETS functions.
- Referring veterans to an AMVETS national service officer, AMVETS state service officer, county veterans service officer or an accredited representative for assistance in filing for veterans benefits
- Becoming familiar with the application forms necessary to assist in the preparation and the proper filing of claims for benefits.
- Being familiar with requirements for veterans in need of medical attention to obtain VA hospitalization and medical care, both under emergency and normal conditions.
- To successfully assist in the development and presentation of any claim, the post service officer must safeguard all confidential information.

Public Relations Officer

AMVETS as an organization is an international "brand" that is shaped and characterized by its very members. The value of the AMVETS brand within our communities is bolstered by an informed and engaged public of the special and outstanding activities sponsored by AMVETS.

Equally, the members themselves must know of the issues and activities occurring within AMVETS. It is the job of the public relations officer (PRO) to be the conduit between the members, the organization and community, and to enhance the prestige of the Post and AMVETS. This role requires someone who will stay informed and actively help keep others informed and engaged both within the Post and AMVETS, as well as the community.

Chaplain

The chaplain is a member of the commander's staff and acts as advisor and consultant to the commander in all matters relating to religion, morals, and morale as affected by religion. The chaplain assists the commander and his staff with integrating the principles of good moral conduct and citizenship in the post. He represents religion which teaches fortitude, reverence and justice, as well as kindness, sympathy and humility.

Quartermaster

The quartermaster on the post level acts as a liaison between the members and National's resource for quartermaster items.

The national quartermaster is not a lending agency; therefore, all purchases from departments, posts and individuals must be made by credit card, check or money order. No items will be shipped until the quartermaster receives payment. Remember, all applicable taxes, shipping and handling charges apply.

Women Veterans' Representatives

AMVETS departments should appoint a women veterans' representative who will report on the department level all subjects pertaining to women veterans. Duties of the women veterans' representatives are as follows:

- Try to make all women veterans aware of their "rights" as veterans.
- Tour state VA hospitals, whenever feasible, to observe the individual VAMC facilities for women veterans. Contact local VA women veterans' coordinators.
- Report to the respective department at every SEC meeting and state convention as to information, progress, etc.
- Try to make all women veterans aware of their "rights" as veterans.
- Tour state VA hospitals, whenever feasible, to observe the individual VAMC facilities for women veterans. Contact local VA women veterans' coordinators.
- Report to the respective department at every SEC meeting and state convention as to information, progress, etc.

Meetings

Before the Meeting

Well in advance of the meeting, the Commander should check with the Adjutant to be sure that all Post members have been notified of the time, date, place and tentative agenda of the meeting, plus announcement of any program planned to follow the meeting. The Commander should review all materials that he and other officers will present at the meeting, condense the materials where possible and provide for their presentation according to the "Order of Business".

During the Meeting

THE CHAIRMAN

The AMVETS Constitution provides that the Commander of the local Post shall chair all Post and Executive Committee meetings. In his absence, the Vice Commander shall be chairman. Should neither of these officers be present, however, the meeting can be called to order by some other officer, and a temporary chairman elected who should preside until the Commander or Vice Commander arrives.

The Chairman is in charge of the meeting. Its success in accomplishing the Post business depends largely upon him. He must see to it that the meeting starts on time, that the necessary business is carried on in an orderly fashion, without allowing the meeting to move so fast that the members are confused, or so slowly that they become disinterested. He must keep order, explain matters that are unclear, see that each member has a fair chance to participate in the discussions and decisions and educate the membership in the rules of parliamentary law.

THE CHAIRMAN'S DUTIES

1. To open the meeting by calling the members to order. The form is "The regular meeting of AMVETS Post # ___ will now come to order."
2. To announce the items of business as they appear on the Agenda.
3. To call upon those members desiring to speak.
4. To state and put to a vote all motions made and seconded, and announce the result of the vote.
5. To decide whether a proposed procedure, motion, or discussion is in accordance with the rules of the body and Parliamentary rules.
6. To introduce any special speaker who may address the meeting.

The meetings should be called to order just at the time set, so as to encourage promptness in attendance. If the members know that the meeting is always a half an hour late in starting, they will wait at least that long before arriving. The Uniform Post Constitution and By-laws provides that a certain number of members, known as a "quorum" must be present before the meeting can be held.

After the Meeting

The period immediately following the meeting is an ideal time for newly-appointed committees to meet and organize their work. The Commander and other officers should organize their notes taken during the meeting, of matters to attend to before the next meeting. Speakers and social events are often scheduled after business meetings.

Posting the Colors

If the colors are posted with only the United States flag, there should be a guard on both sides of the flag bearer. If both the U.S. flag and the post standard flag are used, the post standard flag is carried to the left of the U.S. flag, with a guard on the outer side of each flag (or to the front and rear of the flags when it is necessary to walk single file in a narrow aisle or area).

The U.S. flag is always to the fore, top or right of any other flag or pennant and the post flag should never cross in front of it.

Never have an armed guard without uniform caps. When the color guard is unarmed but wearing uniform caps, the command is “salute” and the color guard gives the regular military salute, while the bearer dips the post colors. The U.S. flag is at “Carry” and is never dipped. If the color guard is unarmed, without caps, and the order “salute” is given, each member of the guard salutes by placing his right hand over his heart. When civilian hats or caps are worn, the salute is given by removing the hat or cap and placing it against the left shoulder, with the hand placed over the heart. If the color guard is armed, the command given is “present arms” and the command following is always “order arms.”

When the command from the provost marshal to the color guard is “Forward march,” guard members should start to shoulder arms on the first step and complete it on the third step.

Depending on the room or area where the marching begins, the guard could also start with shoulder arms before the command “Forward march” is given. The color guard should march from the rear of the room until it reaches the front row of seats where it should halt.

The next command is “Advance and post the colors.” When the color bearers reach a point directly in front of the flag stands, they should halt while the color guard executes “present arms.” Both flags should then be posted simultaneously. When both are in position, the color bearers should take one step back, face the U.S. flag and execute the hand salute. (Whenever the guard is unarmed, its members should execute the hand salute at the command “Present arms.”)

After approximately five seconds, the provost marshal should command:

“At trail arms; forward march.”

“I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.”

AMVETS Obligation Oath

Given by the Commander to New Members

“Now, raise your hand before you and repeat after me, using your name where I use mine, the AMVET Obligation.”

“I _____ in the presence of God and my brothers-in-arms, both living and dead, swear that I have read or had read to me the AMVETS Declaration of Principles, and that I accept and adopt them as my own, and will ever strive toward their accomplishment. I solemnly promise to defend the Constitution of the United States, and to support the American democratic principles upon which it and my country were founded.

“I will aid every worthy veteran to the best of my ability, and do all in my power to preserve and further the ideals for which my brothers-in-arms gave their lives on the battlefields of the world. I will abide by the Constitution and By-laws of my Post, and the state and national AMVET Departments, and their rules and regulations, so help me God. We fought together; now let’s build together for a Better America.”

Order of Business

Invocation

The chaplain should give the invocation and may substitute their own prayer appropriate to the meeting or say the invocation as follows:

“Our Father Who art in Heaven, may Thy name ever be hallowed by the people of America, whom Thou hast blessed as Thou has blessed no other people. May Americans ever adore Thee and thank Thee for those blessings guaranteed to us by law established. Much in us has not been such as to indicate appreciation of those blessings, and we are sorry tonight (this morning/this afternoon) as we gather together in devout and patriotic assembly. Bless all nations; we beseech Thee, that they may dwell together in peace and justice. Bless our nation that she may ever be strong and generous, right and victorious, among the family of nations on this earth. Bless us banded together for good in this organization, that we may serve our nation and our fellow men well, in peace as in war. Bless, we beseech Thee, our fallen comrades, and those whose price of patriotism causes them to suffer today from mental and physical disability. In Thy holy name, most humbly do we pray. Amen.”

Pledge of Allegiance

“I pledge allegiance, to the flag, of The United States of America, and to the Republic, for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.”

AMVETS Principles

(also known as the Preamble to the AMVETS Constitution)

“We, the American veterans who have served or are serving in the Armed Forces of the United States during and since World War II, fully realizing our responsibility to our community, to our state and to our nation, associate ourselves for the following purposes: to uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States; to safeguard the principles of freedom, liberty and justice for all; to promote the cause of peace and goodwill among nations; to maintain inviolate the freedom of our country; to preserve the fundamentals of democracy; to perpetuate the friendship and associations of these veterans; and to dedicate ourselves to the cause of mutual assistance, this by the grace of God.”

Roll Call

When the roll call of officers begins, all officers should stand. The adjutant then reads the names of each officer and the provost marshal responds, “Present,” or “Absent,” as the case may be, when each name is called. Once counted present, the officer can be seated.

Reading the Minutes: The minutes of last post meeting and any executive committee meetings held since that meeting should be read. The minutes should be an accurate account of what business was conducted, including:

- The kind of meeting (regular, special or executive committee).
- The date, time and place of the meeting.
- The name of the chairman and adjutant and, where the bylaws require it, the roll call of officers.
- The action taken on the minutes of the previous meeting.
- Summaries of committees and officer reports and the action taken on them.
- The text of all motions made and seconded, the name of the maker and the action taken on the motion. When the vote is by show of hands, roll call or secret ballot, the exact vote for and against the motion should be entered. It is not necessary to record the debate, although some adjutants include the main points made for or against important motions.

The time of adjournment

The minutes should be typed or written in ink and bound in a book with strong covers. To get all important business recorded, the adjutant should take notes during the meeting or tape record the meeting and then copy the minutes into the permanent minutes book. This should be done as soon as possible so that notes do not get “cold.” The adjutant should sign the minutes of each meeting. If the minutes are bound in a loose-leaf binder and are longer than a page, the adjutant should sign each page.

Bills and Communication

At each meeting, important correspondence should be read to or summarized for the members. The finance officer should also give a report, including a statement of the post’s financial condition, complete with itemized income and expenditures and the post’s banking balance.

Introduction of Guests

When the chairman introduces a guest speaker, he should include in the introduction, the name of the speaker, his title or qualifications and the subject of the speech. The chairman may call on a committee chairman to make the introduction, especially when the talk has specific reference to that committee. Remember, the shorter the introduction, the better.

Membership Report and New Member Initiation

The first vice commander gives the membership report. The report identifies the paid-up members and addresses the efforts being made to secure renewals and new members. During this report, applications for membership are voted on and new members are introduced to the post. It is acceptable to call a short recess so that a proper welcome may be extended to the new members.

Other Reports

The post service officer should report on his work since the last meeting. He should share information on proposed legislation pertaining to veterans on the state and national level and recommend follow-up action. The entertainment committee, athletic committee and the Americanism committee should also give reports. The public relations officer should report on any promotional programs AMVETS has participated in or publicity the organization has received since the last meeting. All publicity should be preserved as valuable history of AMVETS and the post.

Unfinished Business

Any pertinent issues that were left unresolved in previous meetings or considered important to the post’s welfare can be discussed at this time.

New Business

Any important business that has yet to be discussed in the meeting can be mentioned at this time. Good and Welfare: During the “good and welfare” announcements, the members may bring up matters pertaining to the welfare of veterans that require no action to be taken. Educational and entertainment features are often presented during this portion of the meeting rather than waiting for a formal adjournment. Benediction: the chaplain should make the benediction. He may substitute his own prayer appropriate to the meeting or say the following benediction:

“Let us pause this moment that each of us, in the faith of his own heart, may hallow the memory of those, our fallen comrades, who made the supreme sacrifice, and gave their lives on the altar of patriotism to a great and grateful America.” (Pause 30 seconds.) “God of all consolation and all mercy, may those comrades ever sleep in the bosom of Thy love. And do Thou bless us, our loved ones, our comrades, and our fellowman everywhere, now and evermore. Amen.”

The following is the official AMVETS prayer:

“Almighty God, the Father and Guide of our great nation, we beseech Thee to give us the light and strength faithfully to uphold and defend our constitution, to safeguard our principles of liberty and justice, to promote the cause of peace throughout the world, and to strengthen the bonds of friendship and mutual assistance among our fellow citizens. Amen.”

On more solemn occasions, the chaplain prays as follows:

“Give Thy blessing to our world, to our nation, to our loved ones, and to our lives, that all may dwell in charity, in justice, and in peace under Thy loving care. Grant that we may serve our country well, in peace as in war; and that she may ever prevail as good and great, right and victorious among the family of nations on this earth. We beseech Thy special blessing on ourselves, banded together for good in this organization, and on all who have served our nation by suffering and sacrifice in time of national emergency, particularly those who today suffer from mental and physical disability. Most humbly do we ask these graces of Thy bounty, Amen.”

Other prayers may be substituted so long as they are nondenominational.

Retiring the Colors: Nearly the same procedure used in posting the colors is used when retiring the colors. Simply substitute the command of “Retire colors” for the command “Post colors.” Also, the command “Present arms” is given when the color guard arrives in front of their respective colors. The color bearers should then salute. The command “Right shoulder arms; take colors,” is given and the guard should stand at attention and secure the flag. Next, the command “Assemble march,” is given, at which time the guard should execute the same marching order, as was done returning from posting the colors. The guard is retired in the same fashion as in posting the colors, except for the last command, which should be, “dismissed.”

Adjournment: The chairman adjourns the meeting by rapping the gavel once and saying: “I now declare this meeting of AMVETS Post (number) of the Department of (state) adjourned. Our next meeting will be at (time) on (date).”

ROBERT'S RULES OF ORDER

Meetings shall be conducted according to your Bylaws, the National Constitution as well as Robert's Rules of Order. It is the duty of the Auxiliary Commander to maintain an orderly meeting, and to conduct the meeting in such a manner that all business transacted or discussed shall follow in proper sequence.

The Commander, when presiding, always accedes to the will of the majority of the members present and it is not for him to insist on points against the decision of the members.

He should not allow discussions between members across the floor. No member may speak unless first recognized by the Commander. Each AMVET Post should have a Robert's Rules of Order at each meeting, so there should never be a doubt as to procedures or decisions.

The rules of parliamentary law did not develop out of thin air, nor are they devices to complicate the business of AMVET meetings, as the new member sometimes thinks, when a barrage of "points of order," or "previous questions" confronts them.

Like the other rules, which govern modern society, those of parliamentary law are based upon actual experience. If each one of us made up our own traffic regulations, no one would be able to drive a car. In the same way there are rules for football games, for the payment of taxes or the drawing of unemployment compensation, the building of houses, and almost every other activity in which we take part.

Rules for meetings enable the business of the AMVETS to get done with speed and efficiency, while at the same time protecting the rights of all of the members. To the newcomer they may seem confusing, until he/she learns them.

Just as you can't play baseball unless you know that three strikes are out, so you can't play your proper role in the functioning of the rules, which control its actions.

These might be stated briefly as follows:

1. Only one subject can come before the meeting at one time.
2. Each proposal coming before the AMVETS shall be freely debated.
3. Each member has rights equal to those of every other member.
4. The will of the majority shall be carried out, yet the minority shall have the right to present its case.
5. The desires of the membership should be brought together in such a way that the welfare of the organization as a whole is served.

HOW BUSINESS GETS DONE

Unanimous Consent

The Commander should remember that a great deal of the business of the meeting can be accomplished by unanimous consent. For example, when the secretary adjutant has finished reading the minutes, the Commander will ask, "Are there any corrections?" and then if none are made, "If there is no objection the minutes will stand as read, "or "as corrected," if corrections have been made.

This same procedure may operate with regard to communications and reports. In those instances in which communications do not require action, the Commander may say, "If there is no objection, the letter will be received and filed," or in the case of a report, which contains no recommendations, "If there is no objection, the report will be accepted."

Many a meeting has been killed by a large pile of longwinded communications, read in a monotonous voice by an adjutant who isn't at all interested in what they have to say. This can be avoided by having communications go to the executive committee, which decides which of them shall be read to the membership, or by having the adjutant summarize the less important ones.

Motions

Whenever a body desires to take action on any problem it does so through the passage of some motion dealing with that question. Almost all of the activity of a meeting, therefore, revolves around motions and what happens to them, whether they are adopted, amended, defeated or postponed for future action.

Getting the Floor

No one has a right to talk at an AMVETS meeting unless he/she has first been recognized by the Commander, that is, has been "given the floor." A member desiring to present a motion, or to speak on any question, arises and addresses the chair as "Commander."

Ordinarily the Commander recognizes the first member to arise, but when two or more arise at the same time he/she may use their own judgment. When a member has the floor the remainder of the group should sit quietly until he/she has finished. The Commander recognizes a member by nodding or pointing to them, or by calling out their name or position. Thus: "AMVET Brown," or "the member in the third row."

Making the Motion

Every motion should begin with the words "I move that," not "I make a motion that," or "I move you that." Motions should be stated positively, that is in such a manner as to require some action. Thus it is not necessary to pass a motion "not to hold a picnic." A motion cannot be made while there is another motion on the floor, with the exception of certain types of motions, which will be noted later.

Every motion must be "seconded" before it can be discussed. This is to insure that at least two people in the meeting are interested in the motion. In some instances a member desiring to make a motion will ask the privilege of explaining the subject matter and intent of his their motion before making it. If there is no objection from the body, the Commander may allow them to do this. Otherwise no motion may be discussed before being seconded.

In most AMVET meetings all that is required for a motion to second is for a member to call out “Seconded” in a loud voice, while remaining seated.

Stating the Question

When a motion has been made and seconded the Commander should repeat it clearly, so that all members will know what is before the body. If the motion is awkwardly worded or confusing, the Commander, with the permission of the maker, should reword it so that its meaning will be clear. If the Commander believes the motion is “out of order” he/she should say so as soon as it is made. In repeating the motion the Commander may ask the secretary adjutant to read it.

Discussion

When a Commander has finished stating a motion he/she should ask for discussion, thus: “A motion has been made and seconded,” or “It has been regularly moved and seconded that this AMVETS should put into effect the AMVETS MEMBERS juvenile opportunity program. Is there any discussion?”

The maker of the motion is usually given the first opportunity to speak since he/she is the one who can be expected to give the best arguments for it. A member who has not yet spoken on the motion is given preference to one who has; in fact, except for the maker of the motion further explaining its meaning, no one should speak twice on a motion so long as there are some desiring to speak who have not done so.

It is a good practice for the Commander to alternate speakers for and against a motion. If he/she does not know on which side members wishes to speak, he/she can ask, “For or against?” and should be guided accordingly. A member who seldom talks should be given preference over one who speaks frequently. Discussion should be strictly limited to the matter before the meeting.

The Commander has the right to speak on a motion, but should not make a practice of long speeches from the chair, or otherwise dominate the meeting so that the members fear to express their own opinions.

It is best that the Commander speak only when he/she feels that there are certain implications in the motion, which have not been brought out by others, or feels that the matter is so important that he/she wants their position known before the vote is taken.

Amendments

Suppose the AMVETS is considering a motion, which the members would like to see, changed a little. That’s the time when the amendment is used. The amendment may be offered at any time after the motion has been seconded and before the vote is taken. The mover of the amendment must get the floor in the same fashion as one wishing to speak on the motion, and the amendment must be seconded before it can be considered.

The maker of the amendment should state clearly what their amendment is, and to which section of the motion it applies. For example, the body is acting on a motion that “a picnic be held on August 15, with tickets at $1 a couple.” The maker of an amendment wishing to change the date would say, “I make an amendment that the date of the picnic be August 22 instead of August 15.”

No Amendment can be made which is directly contrary to the motion. For instance an amendment not to hold a picnic would be out of order.

Amend the Amendment

Just as it is possible to amend a motion, so it is also possible to change an amendment. There can no amendment to an amendment to amendment.

When during the discussion it would appear that neither the original motion, nor the motion as amended will be satisfactory, the best plan is to offer a “ substitute for the whole, “ that is one motion to replace the original motion and the amendments.

It is important to note that while there can be an amendment to an amendment; there cannot be two amendments to a motion before the meeting at the same time. In the instance cited above, after the amendment had been made to appoint a special committee to make the investigation, it would be out of order to make another amendment asking, that the committee also investigate the possibilities of organizing another AMVETS.

Once an amendment is before the body the discussion is limited to the amendment until it is disposed of. A Commander can sometimes save time by calling upon the maker of the motion and the second and asking whether they would be willing to accept the amendment as part of the original motion. If they agree, and no other members objects, this can be done, saving time and energy.

Voting

When it appears that there has been sufficient discussion, it is time for a vote. The Commander himself cannot close the debate to hold a vote. This can only be done by a majority vote of the body (see “Previous Question”).

Before putting the matter to a vote the Commander should make it clear just what the members are acting on—the motion, the amendment, the amendment to the amendment, or the motion as amended, as the case may be.

Amendment First

When a motion with an amendment is before the body, the vote on the amendment comes first. If the amendment is passed the body then acts upon the motion as amended.

If the amendment is defeated, the vote then is on the original motion. Another amendment may be offered when the first has been disposed of. When a “substitute for the whole” is offered voted upon first. “If adopted, the substitute then takes the place of the original motion, and becomes subject to debate.

In certain cases it is not advisable to use the normal order for voting on amendments. There may be a motion to set up a committee of five, an amendment to make it seven, and an amendment of the amendment to fix the size three. The best procedure is to vote on the largest figure first, with next largest, and so on.

In most instances the members will first vote vocally by saying “Aye” or “No” in chorus with position seeming to have the most voices winning. The form is this: The Commander: “ All those in favor of the motion say aye... those who opposed, no...the aye’s have it and it is so ordered.”

Show of Hands

When there is any doubt in the mind of the Commander or the membership as to which side has the majority, a vote should be taken by a show of hands. The phrase the Commander uses are: "The chair is in doubt. We will vote by show of hands." Any member may call for a vote by show of hands by calling "division" from his seat. The chair should grant this request.

In voting by show of hands the members raises their right hand as the Commander calls for the ayes and nos. If the group is a large one the Commander may appoint tellers who will count hands on each side. Otherwise the secretary adjutant and the Commander can do the counting. The hands should be counted unless the results are so obvious as to be without question. In large meetings voters are often asked to stand rather than to show hands.

Vote by Ballot

On very important questions, such as elections, voting may be by ballot, so that each member may keep his vote secret. Unless otherwise specified in the by-laws, a vote by secret ballot may be called by a majority of the members of the meeting; such a motion is not debatable. Tellers are chosen; who are responsible for distributing the ballots, seeing that the vote is correctly counted. They report the total to the Commander, who announces the results to the meeting.

The Commander has the right to vote when the vote is by ballot, or when his vote will affect the decision. Thus he/she may vote with the minority to make break a tie, and prevent the approval of a matter, or he/she may vote with the majority to break the tie, and provide the passage of a measure. Under no circumstances may he/she vote twice.

Keeping the Order

When a football player violates the rules the game he/she is penalized. In the same fashion a AMVETS member who does not abide by the parliamentary rules of the meeting finds themselves unable to function.

You have seen how he/she may be restrained and prevented from making motions or amendments. If he/she persists in being out of order the Commander may have them removed from the hall.

However, the rules of parliamentary procedure are not all simple, and it is not likely that every member will know all of the fine points. Therefore, it is the duty of the presiding officer, the Commander, to see that the rules are lived up to by calling them to the attention of the members as they are violated or are needed.

Thus we have seen that he/she has forbidden a member to speak on a motion until it had been seconded, he/she has forced members to speak on the question before the house, has seen to it that only one motion was before the body at a time, and otherwise seen to it that the rules of procedure were lived up to.

The Point of Order

However, there are times when someone violates the rules without the Commander noticing it. Or else the Commander may make a ruling which is felt to be wrong. In such a case a member of the body may call it to the attention of the chair by raising a "point of order"

A member wishing to call the attention of the chair to some violation of the rules of order does so by standing up in his place and saying, “Commander, a point of order.” Or simply, “Point of order.” He/she may do this even though he/she interrupts someone else who has the floor. The Commander must recognize them, and ask them what is their point of order.

The form is this: “Point of order, Commander.” What is your point of order?”

“AMVET MEMBER Smith is not speaking on the question before the body.”

“Your point is well taken. AMVET MEMBER Smith, will you please confine your remark to the question before the house?”

Or if the Commander disagrees: “Your point of order is not well taken. AMVET MEMBER Smith’s remarks have a direct bearing on the question before the body. You may proceed, AMVET MEMBER Smith.”

It should be remembered that one of the worst enemies of a well-conducted meeting is the “point of order pest,” that is, the member who regards themselves as the expert on the parliamentary procedure and looks for opportunities to prove it. It is much better to keep quiet when the Commander has missed a minor infraction of the rules than to disrupt the meeting.

A point of order is not:

- An excuse to slow down a meeting.
- A convenient way to interrupt a speaker.
- An excuse to make a speech.
- An excuse to criticize the Commander.

Appeal from the Decision of the Chair

In most instances the best thing a member can do when ruled out of order, or when their point of order is not recognized by the chair, is to keep quiet about it, and abide by the decision of the Commander. When, however, he/she feels that a grave injustice has been done them, or that the decision of the Commander was a definite violation of the rules of procedure, or that the best interests of the AMVETS will be served, the member has a right to “appeal from the decision of the chair,” and have the whole membership decide if they or the Commander was right.

The appeal can be taken only immediately after the ruling has been made. It may be made by the member called to order, or any other member.

The member announces:

“I appeal from the decision of the chair.”

After discussion, if any, the question is put to a vote by the chair in this fashion:

“All those in favor of upholding the ruling of the chair, say aye...Opposed, no...the chair is sustained.”

Or if the vote is the other way:

“The chair is overruled.” Immediately upon the decision of the appeal the business of the meeting is continued.

Point of Information

A member who feels that he/she needs certain information, either about the meaning of a motion, or its effect, or other facts to enable them to vote intelligently, has the right to ask for it at any time. He/she simply gets up and says, “Point of Information.”

The Commander should recognize the questioner but he/she cannot interrupt another speaker. The questioner states their problem, and the Commander should answer it as well as he/she can. Sometimes the questioner desires information from another member.

In such a case, the Commander should ask the one who had been speaking whether he/she will yield for the purpose of the question. He/she cannot be forced to do so.

The questioner must address their question to the chair even though he/she wanted information from another member, thus:

“Commander, I wonder if AMVET MEMBER Jones can tell us how many World War II veterans work with them.”

Parliamentary Inquiry

When the information that the member seeks has reference to the rules of parliamentary procedure this is known as a “parliamentary inquiry,” – for example:

“Is it in order now to make a motion with reference to the problem of unemployed World War II veterans?”

The Commander’s answers to such questions do not constitute decisions that can be appealed. Only a decision he/she would make after such a motion had been brought up would be subject to appeal.

How to Do What You Want to Do

We have seen how a AMVET acts in the normal course of events in dealing with motions and amendments. However, there are times when some unusual action is desired. This is accomplished by what is known in parliamentary law as “subsidiary” motions.

They are intended primarily to help the handling of the business rather than to deal with it directly. Many of them differ from the motions for action which we have discussed in that they can interrupt a speaker, require no second, cannot be debated, or require more than a majority of the votes cast to be carried.

Prevent Something from Coming Before the Body (To Object to the Consideration of a Question)

On occasion a motion is made which deals with a matter the very discussion of which, it is felt, will cause ill feeling or friction, or be otherwise harmful to the body. A member who feels this way will arise immediately after the motion has been made, but before discussion has started, and say, “Commander, I object to the consideration of the question.”

The Commander must reply:

“There has been an objection to the consideration of this question. Will the assembly consider it?”

The matter is then immediately put to a vote. There can be no discussion. If two-thirds of the members vote against considering the question, then it cannot be brought up again during that meeting.

A member desiring to “object to the consideration of the question” may interrupt another speaker. No second is required for the objection. It should be remembered, however, that this motion should be used only in exceptional cases.

Take Back Something You Have Started (Withdrawing a Motion)

After a motion has been made and seconded it becomes the property of the body, and cannot be withdrawn without its consent. The maker of the motion asks the Commander for permission to withdraw his motion, and the Commander puts the question before the members thus:

“If there is no objection the motion will be withdrawn.”

When an objection is raised the question of withdrawal must be put to a vote. It requires no second, cannot be debated, and requires a majority vote to pass.

Drop the Matter for the Present

(“To Table” “To Lay on the Table” or “To Defer” “To Defer Indefinitely”)

Sometimes a member may feel that a motion under discussion is taking up too much time, or that the motion is unwise and should be gotten out of the way without spending any more time debating its merits. In such a case he/she makes a motion to “table the Motion,” or “to lay the motion on the table.” THIS IS AN IMPROPER MOTION!

This motion is intended to postpone action on a matter, in order to take up more pressing business. The proper motion to delay action on or dispose of a motion in these circumstances is to move to “defer the motion” or to “defer the motion indefinitely.” If more information is needed before a motion can be decided, the member would ask for recognition and, upon being recognized, state, “I move to defer the motion until we can receive additional information as to _____.”

If the object is to drop the matter altogether, the member would say, “I move to defer this indefinitely. The Commander then asks for a second, and if the motion is seconded, puts the question of deferring to a vote.

A motion to table discussion on a motion in order to discuss an urgent matter is stated, “I move to table this motion in order to determine.”

The commander then asks for a second, and if a second is made, puts the question of tabling to a vote. There is no discussion on a motion to table.

A motion which has been tabled can be “removed from the table” as soon as some other business has been transacted. A member making the motion “to remove from the table” is recognized in the usual manner, and again the question is decided without debate, and by a majority vote.

The use of the “motion to defer” as a means of killing a measure to be discussed; can be overdone by a reckless majority. It is a much wiser policy to close debate in the regular fashion (see below) and then defeat the motion, if that is the end desired.

To Limit or to Extend Debate

Only by action of the members themselves can debate on a motion be stopped so long as some of the members desire to speak. The body, however, can limit the amount of debate which shall be allowed, or stop it altogether. Motions to do this are made in the usual fashion, require a second and are not debatable. They may be amended and are debatable only when they come before the body as a general rule for all questions.

Debate may be limited by setting a time when the motion before the house shall come to a vote, by limiting the number of speeches and the time for each speech, or by allotting a certain amount of time for each side of the question. In the latter case, members on the same side may get together to divide the time. In some auxiliaries it is the practice to have a standing rule in the by-laws fixing the maximum amount of time that a member may speak on any motion.

When there is a standing rule fixing the time for debate, or when the body has acted to limit debate, and it is found advisable that the time for debate be extended, this may be done by a motion similar to that limiting discussion.

In both cases, the maker of the motion to limit or extend debate must get the floor in the usual manner, and cannot interrupt someone who has the floor.

Stop Discussion and Take a Vote (The Previous Question)

When it is desired to cut off debate entirely, and come to a vote at once, the motion is the “previous question.” For the “previous question” to be moved it is necessary for the mover to be recognized by the Commander in the usual manner. The motion requires a second, and like the motion to limit debate it is not debatable and requires a two-thirds vote.

The form is “I move the previous question,” or “I move that we close debate and vote on the question.” Immediately after the motion is made and seconded the Commander must put it to a vote thus: The previous question has been called for. Will those in favor say aye...opposed, no....”

In some organizations it is the practice to close debate when several members call out “Question” from their seats, showing that they are tired of the debate, and want to vote. This practice is proper in most cases, but should not be used when there are members who desire to speak. Then the motion for the “previous question” is the proper one.

Change a Previous Decision of the Organization (To Reconsider)

When it is felt that a body has acted hastily on some matter, or later events or new information indicate that the decision was unwise, the organization may decide to “reconsider” or “rescind” the action.

The motion to “reconsider” is used when it is desired to bring the whole matter up anew for discussion and action. It must be made on the same day that the vote to be reconsidered was taken. It must be made by someone who voted with the majority in the original instance, but any member may second it. When the vote has

Committees

There are two general types of committees; a standing committee and a special committee. A standing committee is one that continues to function throughout the year and deals with all matters that come up within its jurisdiction. One of the most important standing committees is the executive committee, which has the responsibility of carrying on the post's business between meetings and planning the post's activities. This committee is primarily made up of the post's elected officers, although it may also include appointed officers. Its duties are generally outlined in the bylaws of the organization. Other standing committees deal with special needs such as the membership, programs or legislation.

Conducting Business

Once a committee is selected, the post may elect a chairman or the committee can choose its own chairman. The committee should also select a secretary and, if the group is large, a vice or co-chairman.

It is impossible for the entire committee body to accomplish all its business at regular meetings; therefore, committees should meet regularly to conduct their business and organize their efforts.

The chairman is responsible for the proper functioning of the body, seeing that it meets regularly, that the members are notified of meetings, that reports are made properly and so forth. In committee meetings, the chairman also plays an important part in the discussions.

One of the advantages of a small committee is its informality. In large committees, it is nearly impossible to enjoy informal procedures and it becomes necessary to use the rules of parliamentary procedure. In a small group, the rules of parliamentary procedure are liberalized.

There can be discussion without a motion; a member may speak as often as he desires, and it is not necessary for him to rise when speaking. This informality makes it possible to discuss each matter thoroughly and reach a mutual agreement. All motions should be put to a vote unless there is a unanimous agreement.

Reports

Committee reports should be written clearly or typed, especially when they are important or recommend action. The committee secretary usually writes the report; however, the chairman gives the report. Progress reports without any specific recommendations can be made orally by the chairman or by a selected committee member.

Acting on the Report: After a committee has given its report, the post members attending the meeting may vote to "accept" the report if they are satisfied with it. When the report of a committee includes several suggestions, or recommendations for action, the members may act on all recommendations at one time, or on each recommendation separately through the motion process. The body also has the option to "reject" the report, in which case the matter is left as it was before the committee acted. If the members are not satisfied with the report but feel that the committee can do better, they may "commit" the report, with or without instructions to the committee.

Majority and Minority Reports: When a minority of committee members does not agree on a report, they may submit a “minority report.” The members, however, should listen to the minority report; if there is any objection, the matter should be put to vote without debate. The body acts on the report of the majority, unless a motion is made to substitute the minority report for that of majority, in which case the discussion proceeds on the minority views. If such a motion is defeated, the body then acts on the majority report.

Uniforms and Insignia

The AMVETS uniform for males consists of a navy blue blazer, medium-gray trousers, white dress shirt, black belt, navy blue necktie and appropriate black footwear. The AMVETS uniform for females consists of a navy blue blazer, medium-gray slacks or medium-gray skirt, white dress blouse and appropriate black belt and neckwear and black footwear. (Resolution 00-73).

Official AMVETS caps are different, depending on the title of the member:

- POST OFFICERS AND MEMBERS: Green with gold piping and lettering
- STATE OFFICERS: White with green piping and lettering
- STATE DISTRICT OFFICERS: Green band, white top with gold piping and lettering
- NATIONAL OFFICERS: White with gold piping and lettering
- NATIONAL COMMANDER: Gold with white piping and lettering

Members may wear the cap of the highest office they held, provided that the year they served is indicated on it.

The AMVETS uniform and cap should be worn at all AMVETS functions. Additionally, they should be worn at all patriotic events and when cooperating with, or participating in observances of other veterans military organizations.

The cap should be worn indoors and outside; however, it should be removed when entering a church, unless worn by a member (or the commander) of an armed honor or color guard.

To properly hold the AMVETS cap during prayer, simply grasp the cap lengthwise in the right hand with the insignia showing, insert four fingers inside the cap and place it over your heart.

Post Constitution and Bylaws

The post CBL is the most important document that a post develops and adopts. It lays out the ground rules for post members to follow. The rights and responsibilities established must be fair and understood by all the members. The national CBL mandates that each post CBL be consistent with the national and department CBLs.

The post judge advocate is responsible for writing, maintaining, interpreting and updating the post CBL. The CBL must be forwarded to the department judge advocate for review and approval after which it is sent to AMVETS National Headquarters for placement in permanent files.

Why Parliamentary Law?

Because AMVETS meetings are conducted according to the newest edition of "ROBERT'S RULES OF ORDER," each post should have a copy of this publication available at every meeting. The highest ranking officer, usually the post commander, serves as the meeting's chairman.

- The chairman must maintain an orderly meeting, so that all business transacted is discussed and follows proper sequence. No member should speak unless first recognized by the chairman.
- The post commander, when presiding, always accedes to the will of the majority of the members present. It is not his place to insist on points against the decision of the members. Rules for meetings enable the business of the post to get done efficiently while at the same time protecting the rights of all the members.
- Only one issue at a time is addressed.
- All members can freely debate each proposal presented to the post.
- All members have equal rights.
- The will of the majority is carried out, yet the minority has the right to present its case.
- The motions put forward should serve to accomplish organizational goals and promote the welfare of AMVETS.

Flag Etiquette

When wearing the cap, give the hand salute in the same way as when the military uniform is worn. During the posting and retiring of the colors or the Pledge of Allegiance, stand at attention and give the hand salute.

When wearing the U.S. flag, certain rules apply. The following information was published by the Institute of Heraldry, United States Army, as revised 20 October, 1976:

- Wearing a flag pin: The lapel flag pin, being a replica, should be worn on the left side near the heart.
- Wearing a flag patch: When worn on the right shoulder sleeve, it is proper to reverse the design so that the uniform is to the observer's right to give the effect of the flag flying in the wind as the person passes. When worn on the left shoulder sleeve, it is customary to position the flag with the union (blue field) uppermost and to the observer's left. In other words, the union is always forward when it is displayed flat against a surface.
- The flag patch is to be worn on the left shoulder with the top two inches below the shoulder seam with the blue field uppermost and forward on a white shirt. There shall be no other patches worn on the shirt except the POW-MIA patch (optional), which shall be worn under the American Flag in a proportional manner or centered. AMVETS collar insignia shall be the same as that of the color guard, worn on each side of the collar, vertical from the tip of the collar.

Official AMVETS flags are prescribed as follows:

- POSTS: Blue with gold fringe and lettering
- STATE DISTRICTS: Green with gold fringe and lettering
- STATE DEPARTMENTS: Red with gold fringe and lettering
- NATIONAL DEPARTMENT: White with gold fringe and lettering

AMVETS Ceremonies

Each commander should understand and make full use of AMVETS ceremonial rituals. All ceremonial functions should be carried out with dignity. Those participating in the rites should study and rehearse the procedures and memorize their lines.

Singing or playing the National Anthem should open all-important AMVETS functions. The AMVETS emblem should be placed in the center of the wall directly behind the commander's station.

If observing the room from the rear of the hall, the U.S. flag should be posted to the left and the post colors to the right. The colors should be placed towards the back of the officers. Stations, in the front of the meeting hall.

Before the opening ceremony or the exemplification of any AMVETS ceremony, the provost marshal must ascertain that only AMVETS members or honored guests are present. He should then report his findings to the commander. Any AMVET entering the hall after the meeting has opened shall take a seat at the rear.

Post Officer Installation

The ceremony for installing officers should be used for all annual post installations. Before the officers of a new post can be installed, preparations must be made for the ceremony, with responsibilities carried out as follows:

The post commander should:

1. Invite installing officers by letter
2. Send invitations to:
 - Civic Dignitaries
 - Allied Veterans Organizations
 - AMVETS Post, Department and District Officers
 - AMVETS Auxiliary and Sons Post, Department and District Officers

The installing provost marshal should:

1. Acquire the names and addresses of officers-elect.
2. Read Aims and Purposes of AMVETS to officers-elect.
3. Explain to officers and officers-elect just what you will do and what is expected of them.
4. Confer with installing officer. Inform him of what has taken place. Give him a list of Officers-elect.

The installing officer should:

1. Confer with Commander and Commander-elect as to procedure.
2. After installation, notify State Department and National Headquarters of completion of ceremony.

Installation Ceremony

AMVETS has no secret ceremonies or rituals; therefore, the public, prospective members and the families of members, should never be kept in the dark as to the aims, purposes and principles of AMVETS. The installing officer should be a department or national officer, or a duly authorized officer of another post, district or department. The retiring commander assumes his position in the center of the platform or stage with the incoming officers seated to his left. The retiring officers, installing officer, honored guests and speakers are seated to the left so that when they rise to recite the AMVETS oath they will be facing the U.S. flag, which is to the right of the platform.

When the retiring provost marshal has everyone in the assembly seated, the retiring commander raps his gavel three times and says:

“Will everyone in the assembly please rise? Will the provost marshal please order the color guard to come forward and post the colors?”

The provost marshal says:

“Color guard, advance the colors. Forward march!”

From the rear of the hall, the color guard and color bearers should advance to the front, stop about 12 to 15 feet in front of the commander and stand at attention. The provost marshal then has the colors posted. While the assembly remains standing, the commander introduces the post chaplain and asks that the invocation be delivered.

The chaplain says the invocation.

The assembly should remain standing if The Star Spangled Banner is sung or played after the invocation or if the Pledge of Allegiance is recited. One rap of the gavel signifies that the audience is to be seated. The retiring commander then speaks to the assembly and gives a report on past activities of the post and the duties that the new officers and members are to assume.

The post provost marshal leads the installing officers to the rostrum. The installing provost marshal retires the post provost marshal and returns to the front of the rostrum. After welcoming the installing officer, the post commander presents him with the gavel. Thanking the post commander, officers and post members for their fine work during the past year, the installing officer raps the gavel once, signifying the start of the installation:

Installing Officer: Provost Marshal, please retire the outgoing officers of AMVETS Post # _____.

Provost Marshal: Commander, the officers of AMVETS Post # _____, Department of Ohio have been removed.

Installing Officer: Provost marshal, are the elected officers of AMVETS Post (number) prepared to take their oath of office?

Provost Marshal: They are, commander.

Installing Officer: Have they read and do they understand our AIMS AND PURPOSES?

Provost Marshal: Commander, they have read and they do understand our AIMS AND PURPOSES.

Installing Officer: Then you will lead them before the rostrum to be installed.

The provost marshal returns, leading the officers in front of rostrum, left arm to rostrum. He does an about face, leads the roll call, gives the officers a left face, and presents them to the installing officer in this manner:

Provost Marshal: "Commander, I present to you the officers-elect, with the exception of the commander and the chaplain of AMVETS Post (number), Department of (state), for the purpose of installation."

Installing Officer: "Fellow AMVETS, you have been chosen by the members of your post to represent them in your respective capacities. Are you prepared to take your oath of office?"

Assembled Officers: "I am."

Installing Officer: "Raise your right hand, and repeat after me, using your name where I use mine, the AMVETS oath of office." (Raps gavel three times; all stand).

Assembled Officers: (repeating oath): "I (name)/solemnly swear/that I will support and defend/the Constitution of the United States/that I will defend and support/the United States from all enemies/both from within and without/and that I will support and obey/the Constitution and/The Principles of AMVETS/and that I will carry out/the duties of my office/to the best of my ability/so help me God."

Installing Officer: You may lower your hands. May I offer my congratulations to all of you. Provost Marshal, you will introduce and seat the elected Officers. (Provost Marshal gives Officers an about face).

Provost Marshal: It is my privilege to introduce to you the officers, with the exception of the Commander and Chaplain of AMVETS Post # _____, Department of Ohio. (Provost Marshal then leads officers in an orderly manner and escorts them to their seats, returns to the rostrum, salutes and reports: "Mr. Commander, the officers-elect with the exception of the Commander and Chaplain have been seated).

Installing Officer: Provost Marshal, you will bring forth to this rostrum the Chaplain that he may be charged with the duties of his office.

Provost Marshal: Mr. Commander, I am privileged to present to you Chaplain.... to be instructed in the duties of his office.

Installing Officer: This is the office that is symbolic of Devotion to God and Country, to the memory of our honored dead and to the plight of the sick and disabled. You will interpret the heartfelt devotion of the members of this Post. Provost Marshal, you will escort the Chaplain to a position on the platform. (Provost Marshal seats Chaplain and returns, faces Installing Officer and says: Mr. Commander the Chaplain has been seated) Provost Marshal, you will lead to this rostrum the Commander, so that he may be installed.

Provost Marshal: Mr. Commander, I present to you to be installed....the Commander-elect of AMVETS Post #____, Department of Ohio. (Provost Marshal salutes, takes two steps back, covering the Commander).

Installing Officer: You have been chosen by your fellow AMVETS to lead them for the following year. The responsibilities will be great. Knowing this, are you willing to assume your duties and take your oath of office?

Incoming Commander: I am. (Gavel is rapped three times, all stand)

Installing Officer: Then you will raise your right hand, repeat after me, using your name where I use mine. "I (.....) solemnly swear / that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States / that I will defend and support the United States from all enemies / both from within and without / and that I will support and obey / the Constitution and Declaration / of Principles of AMVETS / and that I will carry out / the duties of my office / to the best of my ability / so help me God." (Gavel is rapped once, all are seated).

Installing Officer: Provost Marshal, you will escort the Commander to the rostrum. (Provost Marshal complies) You have been elected to the highest office that this post can bestow upon any member. This office exemplifies Authority and Justice. I present you with the Gavel, the symbol of Authority. Use it wisely and with discretion. Congratulations. (Installing Officer hands gavel to new Commander, then faces Provost Marshal).

Provost Marshal: Having complied with our rules and regulations, with the power invested in my authority, I hereby declare AMVETS Post #____, Department of Ohio, duly and legally installed for the year ____ (Provost Marshal salutes, does about face, salutes Installing Officer, does an about face, and retires).

Once this has been done, the installing officer thanks the post and audience, and expresses his pleasure at performing the ceremony. The provost marshal and the chaplain (if a part of the installing party) also extend their thanks.

The installing party then retires to places of honor on the platform and the newly installed post commander takes the chair and completes the meeting. The first act of the new commander is to post the colors of the new post, which should be followed by lively patriotic music.

The chaplain then gives the benediction.

“Give Thy blessing to our world, to our nation, to our loved ones, and to our lives, that all may dwell in charity, in justice and in peace under Thy loving care. Grant that we may serve our country well, in peace as in war, that she may ever prevail as good and great, right and victorious among the family of nations on the earth. Most humbly do we ask these graces of Thy bounty. Amen.”

Deceased post member procedures

A resolution was adopted at the 1972 National Convention pertaining to honors to be given deceased members. The resolution directed that upon the death of a member, his post shall drape their Charter for a period of thirty days. Upon the death of a Department Officer, each post in the department shall drape their Charter for a period of thirty days. Each post in the nation shall drape their Charters for thirty days upon the death of a National Officer.

It is requested that each post comply with the provisions of the resolution outline above at the first meeting of the Post following the death of a member, and/or Department and National Officer.

When State Headquarters received notification of the death of a member a Memorial Certificate is prepared and signed by the National Commander and forwarded to the Post Commander concerned for his signature and presentation to the wife and/or next of kin of the deceased.

So that the Post Commander will have the name and address of the spouse or next of kin, a copy of the decease notification form is sent with the certificate to the post. The name of the deceased is then removed from the rolls and mailing list. His name will appear in the booklet distributed at the Annual Memorial Service conducted at the State and National Convention. It is quite important that the deceased notification form contain the name and address of the spouse or next of kin of deceased members.

Funeral Rituals

Rituals should follow those prescribed by military regulations. Funeral services should be simple in accordance with the extreme solemnity of the proceedings.
